

Priority Areas of Study

- i. Education -Includes Primary Education and Secondary Education (Math, English, Science, Social Studies, Spanish, Music, Technical Education, Information Technology), Educational Psychology, Special Education (Speech and Language Pathology, Reading Specialists), Curriculum Development, and Educational Leadership.
- ii. Health, Public Health, and Medical Sciences - Nursing, Public Health, Environmental Health, Gerontology, Health Disaster Management, and Epidemiology.
- iii. Infrastructure, Architecture, and Engineering -Civil and Structural Engineering, Quantity Surveying, Urban Design, City Planning, Project Management, Ports Management, Plumbing, Electrical, and Industrial/Laboratory Technology.
- iv. Technology and Digital Transformation - Computer Science, Cybersecurity, Digital Infrastructure, GIS Technology, Data Analytics, and ICT Technicians.
- v. Creative Industries and Communication- Film Studies, Mass Communications, Advertising, Marketing, Public Relations, Journalism, Arts (Performing, Visual, Creative), Art Management, Videography, and Culinary Arts
- vi. Marine and Environmental Sciences -Marine Engineering, Nautical Science, Environmental Health Engineering, Waste Management Engineering, Climate Change Studies, Entomology, and Sustainability.
- vii. Business, Finance, and Entrepreneurship -Accounting and Finance, Business Analytics, International Business, Entrepreneurship, Economics, and Tourism and Hospitality Studies
- viii. Social Sciences, Governance, and Public Policy - History, Anthropology, Social Studies, Public Administration, Political Science, International Relations, Diplomacy, Policy Analysis, and Compliance/Risk Management.
- ix. Law, Criminal Justice, and Global Affairs - Law, International Law, Criminal Justice, Migration Management, Intelligence Studies, Gender Studies, and Social Work Administration.
- x. Agriculture, Fisheries, and Food Security - Agricultural Sciences, Fisheries Management, Sustainable Farming Practices, and Food Security Policy.