It is a criminal offense to make a false statement to acquire a visa waiver. If you have made a false statement on this form, you could be prosecuted. Applicants will not receive their visa waiver unless the relevant documents are presented. Incorrect information may cause delay or a denial of your application. The Visa Initiative IS NOT transferable to any other passport and is valid until the current passport expires. Persons traveling should consult with the Issuing Authority before purchasing a ticket. A letter of consent must be submitted when an applicant cannot present or collect their own visa waiver. The processing time for a Visa Waiver is ten (10) working days. NOTE: All prior criminal convictions and any pending charges are viewed and considered by US Homeland Security.
