

COI Implementation Unit

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE COMMISSION OF INQUIRY REPORT AND OTHER REFORMS

REPORT SUMMARY FOR THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER 2022

The Commission of Inquiry Implementation Unit has reported to the Governor and Premier on the status of work completed up to the end of November 2022.

Based on the timelines agreed in the Framework for Implementation of the Recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry Report and Other Reforms:

Work on 48 of the 50 Framework recommendations has begun. The remaining two are scheduled to begin in 2023. The Recommendations are currently split into 132 Actions. Of these, 45 (34%) are completed, 39 (30%) are in progress and on track, 21 (16%) are in progress but experiencing challenges and 27 (20%) have not been started as yet.

Most notably, during the month of November:

- the work on the Public Service Transformation Programme was completed and a system put in place to track implementation;
- the Governor assenting to the revised Jury Act;
- the name of the independent reviewer for Recommendation B24 was agreed by the Governor and the Premier. Work on this recommendation now begins;
- the Constitutional Review Commission held 17 separate meetings and events as part of their public consultation.

The Dashboards give a pictorial summary of the status of the fulfilment of the COI recommendations as agreed in the Framework, as well as other reforms, so you can track the status of work on each recommendation. The Key lists and summarises each of the 50 COI Framework Recommendations as well as the other reforms, now being worked on as the main focus of Government of the Virgin Islands to raise our standards of governance in our beautiful Territory.

If you have any specific questions on the implementation of any of the COI Framework Recommendations or desire further information, please email the COI Implementation Unit directly at implementationunit@gov.vg.
